

2012 YOUNG OFFICIALS PROGRAM

Get Trackside at the 2012 FORMULA 1 Australian Grand Prix

The Confederation of Australian Motor Sport (CAMS) is offering young motor sport enthusiasts the opportunity to be a part of the 2012 FORMULA 1 Australian Grand Prix Officials Team.

The 2012 Young Officials Program aims to introduce motor sport enthusiasts between the ages of 16 and 25 to the world of motor sport officiating. The successful applicants will be trained in a safe and supportive environment supervised by some of the world's best motor sport officials. This is a great opportunity to get involved in one of the biggest events on the Australian motor sport calendar.

This new & exciting program offers successful applicants:

- The opportunity to officiate trackside during Formula 1 Practice, Qualifying and Racing.
- Learn from the best in the business during other exciting categories; including the V8 Supercars, Carrera Cup and Group A and C Touring Cars.
- CAMS apparel and race day pack (including food each day).
- Invitation to the exclusive CAMS Officials BBQ at the conclusion of the race.
- Two guest passes for all four days of action, for friends and family.

To be eligible you must meet the following criteria:

- Aged between 16 and 25
- Be available to officiate at the Albert Park F1 Circuit from the 16th – 18th March 2012. Between the hours of 8am and 7pm
- Be an enthusiastic team player, willing to take direction and listen to instructions
- Have written consent from a parent or guardian (for applicants under 18)

There are 20 places available. To be considered for a position at the first race of the 2012 Formula 1 season, follow the link below and complete the online entry form by no later than 23rd January 2012.
