

About The Event

This event is intended to act as an introduction for junior competitors to low level Motorsport activity. The event will consist of two elements:

1. A briefing element of approx. 30-40 minutes providing an overview of the Pakenham Auto Club activities and rules along with the C.A.M.S. requirements and regulations. The club holds an expectation that parents/guardians will also attend this session.
2. A participation element consisting of one on one observation and instruction in motorkhana driving with an experienced club member, of approximately 1-1½ hours duration.
